MEMBERS OF THE NEW KNOXVILLE SCHOOL DISTRICT:

The Senior Class and V. E. Katterheinrich, our advisor, have worked diligently and thereby published the Memoir, our Yearbook for 1950. It was through the kindness of the families of our school district and the business men of New Knoxville and surrounding cities that this Memoir was made possible. The Class of 1950 wishes to take this opportunity to thank all our friends who have helped make this Memoir a reality. We feel sure that the students of New Knoxville School, and you also, will have many a cherished memory as you read and enjoy this Memoir now, and in years to come.

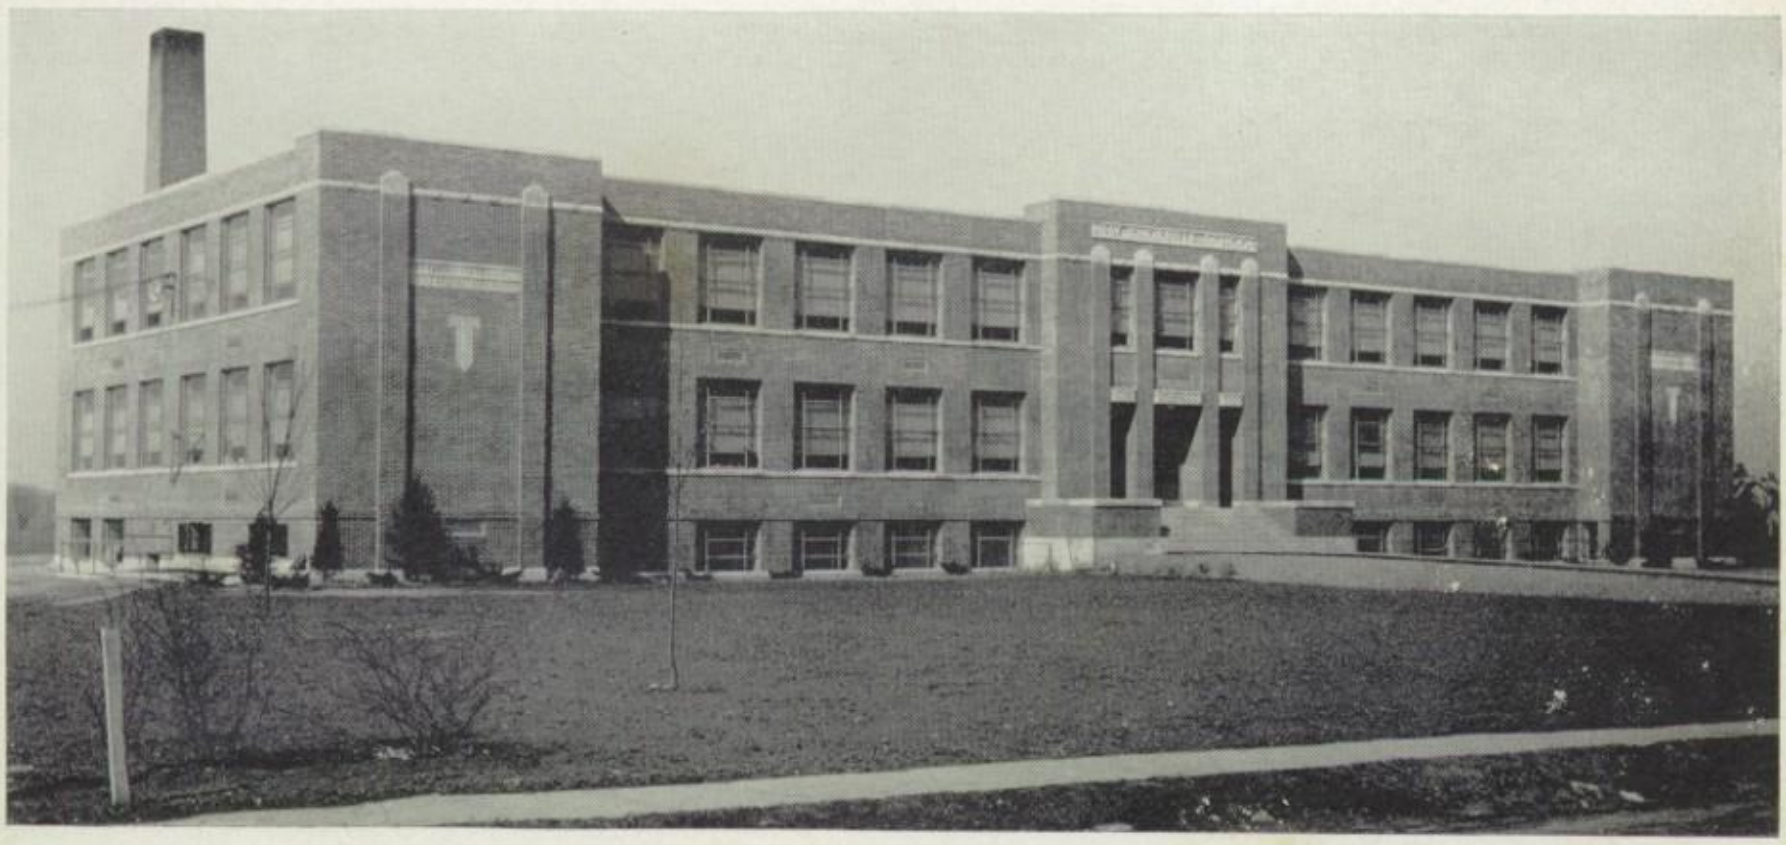
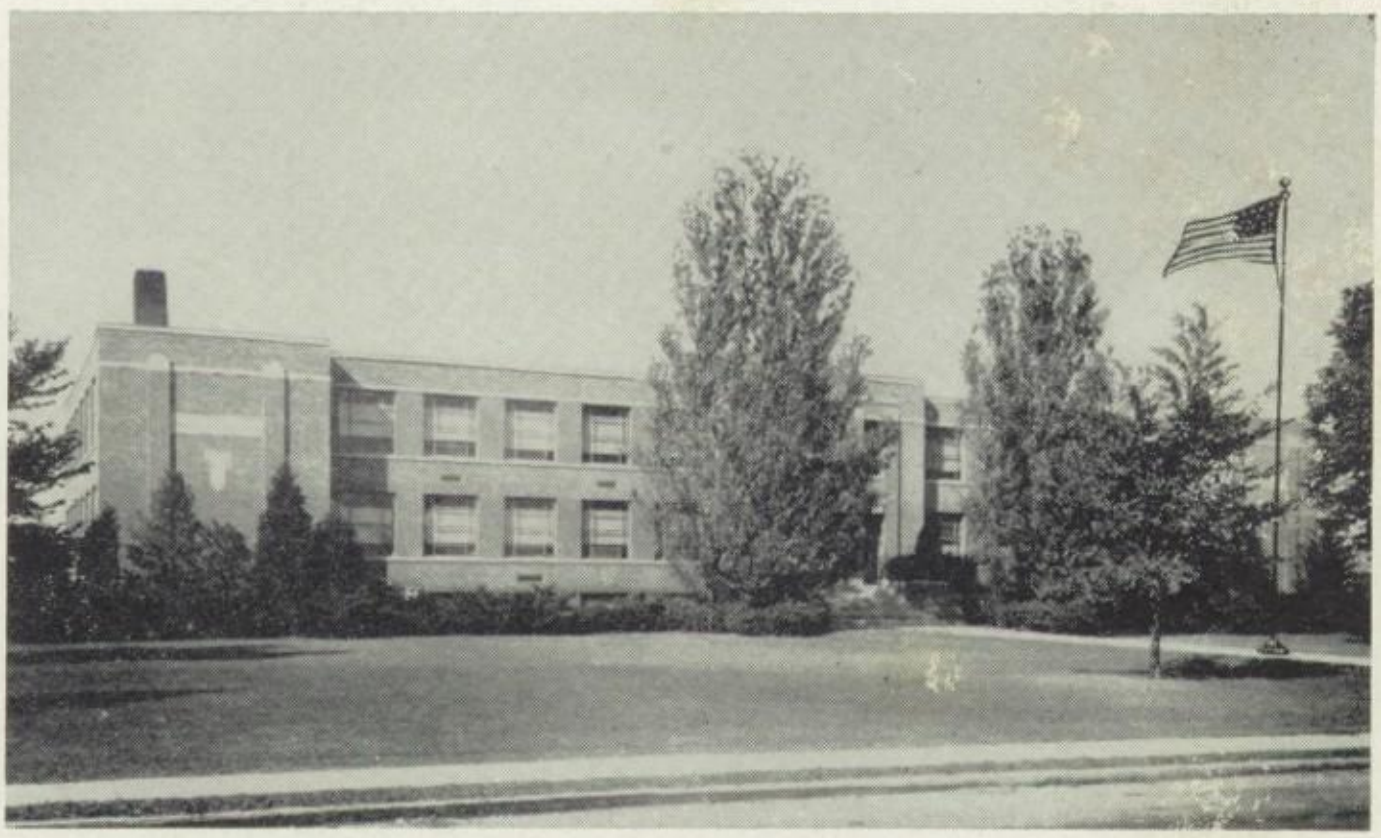
NEW KNOXVILLE VILLAGE SCHOOL 1938



NEW KNOXVILLE VILLAGE SCHOOL 1950



The Class of 1950 has the honor of being the first class to complete its entire grade and high school education in our new school building. In the top picture we see the school as it appeared in the fall of 1938, when we entered it as first graders. The lower picture is the building as it appears today. The Class of 1950 feels deeply indebted to the members of this community who feel education is one of the important achievements of an individual and therefore have provided such excellent educational facilities for its youth.

CLASS HISTORY

We, the Class of 1950, are proud to state that this is the first class to have completed twelve years of education in the building from which we are graduating. Excellent facilities have been provided by this community to give us a varied and complete education.

We entered this school in the fall of 1938 as first graders and gradually worked our way into high school. Our class consisted of twenty shy freshmen when we began our high school education in September, 1946. During the year Betty Elshoff moved to St. Marys and attended school at Memorial High School. Raymond Sholler joined our class but found an interest elsewhere and left before the year was finished. We took an active part in the school activities. Eight members of our class belonged to the band. Three of our boys came out for basketball.

The next fall, 1947, we began school with a total of twenty members. Carol Kuck moved in from Anna, where she had attended as a freshman. Our band membership dropped to seven that year but we had eleven members in the chorus. Two additional members of our class came out for basketball and the original four were still playing baseball. Two of our girls were elected cheerleaders.

The same twenty members spent their junior year together. Our class rings, of which we are very proud, were purchased during the junior year. We presented our junior class play, "Father Didn't Bother" to a large and appreciative audience. The Junior-Senior reception in honor of the seniors was successfully given by our class on May 6, 1949. Our two cheerleaders were reelected for another year and our boys were again active in the field of sports. The band and chorus were also well represented by members of our class.

In September of 1949, the one time shy freshmen were elevated to the rank of dignified seniors. Gladys Rostorfer joined her family in Wapakoneta decreasing our membership to nineteen. On March 24, 1950 we presented our senior play. The Junior-Senior reception was given in our honor on May 12th by the Class of 1951. The week of May 14, 1950, will long be cherished in our memory as the beginning and end of our many graduation activities.

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

THE SENIOR CLASS

Of New Knoxville High School

We, the Senior Class of 1950, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make, declare and publish this as our last will and testament:

Article I — To the faculty we wish to express our sincere thanks for their patience, help and guidance.

Article II — To the Board of Education we extend our sincere appreciation for all the things they have done for us to help make our task less difficult.

Article III — To the underclassmen we leave these belongings to whom we feel it would be an advantage to have.

I, Vernon Clausing, will and bequeath my ability to make bright remarks to Henry Telljohann.

I, Kathryn Cook, will and bequeath my sparkling brown eyes to James DuBois.

I, Kenneth Elshoff, will and bequeath my basketball ability to Don Hoelscher.

I, Grace Eversman, will and bequeath my blond hair to James McCullough.

I, Eileen Haberkamp, will and bequeath my ability to get a man to Eileen Henschen.

I, Ned Hoge, will and bequeath my height to Leonard Elshoff.

I, Malcolm Kantner, will and bequeath my studious ability to Don Prueter.

I, Larry Kattman, will and bequeath my teasing ability to Kermit McCullough.

I, Betty Kiefer, will and bequeath my love for blonds to Lee Ann Walters.

I, Lester Kruse, will and bequeath my bashfulness to Fred Cook.

I, Carol Kuck, will and bequeath my love for Waynesfield to Lillian Schroer.

I, Rogene Lehman, will and bequeath my stately walk to Carol Schroer.

I, Lois Montgomery, will and bequeath my silly giggle to anyone who wants it.

I, Joyce Niemeyer, will and bequeath some of my pep and ticklish sensations to Lois Schroer.

I, Forest Sawmiller, will and bequeath my ability to argue to Marjorie Kuck.

I, John Schneider, will and bequeath my happy-go-lucky nature to Franklin Sawmiller.

I, Lois Schroeder, will and bequeath my love for ministers to Marilyn Henkener.

I, Robert Settlage, will and bequeath a few of my extra pounds to some one who needs them.

I, Merlin Stolzenburg, will and bequeath my quietness to Kermit Miller.

And to the entire student body we leave the memory of our radiant faces and our sparkling personalities.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hand and seal, this eighteenth day of May, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty.

CLASS PROPHECY

Years have passed since that eventful graduation day, and as I sat in my lonely room reviewing these happy days, a longing to know what had been the fortune of my former classmates crept over me. The desire became so strong that I determined to consult a sorceress whom I knew to have unusual powers.

As I rapped cautiously at the door, my heart pounded gladly for I felt certain my visit would be successful. The room to which I was guided was very dark. I wondered as I sat there how long the sorceress would keep me waiting, but—I was startled! What was that in the corner? Now it moved; ah yes, it was a woman. As she advanced toward me I noticed that she was very tall and powerfully built. There was a mystic charm about her that inspired in one a feeling of awe and fear. "Your purpose?" She said pointedly, in a deep contralto voice that roused me from my reflection.

When I had stated my mission, she moved to a farther corner of the room and produced a large crystal and placed it on the table a little distance from me. "Now," she said, "if you will close your eyes and remain silent, I will read to you the crystal's revelations." It seemed hours before she began, and then her voice sounded hollow and far away.

"I see," she said, "a group of bright energetic young people entering life's road. Some are going one direction; others in another; still others are hesitating while they watch with wonder the course of their fellows. Ah, the picture fades and the figures are no longer discernible." There was a few minutes silence, then her voice roamed on. "Again the picture comes into view. There are a great many people moving about while adding machines are clicking busily. Across the door is printed in large black letters, MALCOLM KANTNER, Chief Accountant, Kruse Bolt and Nut Company. Malcolm's greatest ambition has come true. Across the hall the owner, LESTER KRUSE and a constructionist, KENNETH ELSHOFF, are talking over a design for a new plant. Lester has built the company from a small plant in one building to a plant that covers three blocks. Kenneth is the manager of the largest construction companies in the United States. His firm built the Emperess building, consisting of 210 floors, in New York City. Lester's private secretary, KATHRYN COOK, waits patiently for directions. Kathryn is chief secretary over fifty other girls. She handles all of Lester's private business. Suddenly the door is thrown open and MERLIN STOLZENBURG enters. He has come to see Kenneth about a new hotel which he wants to build on the West Coast. Merlin owns a chain of hotels which are located in New York, London and Paris. Here the picture grows dim and another scene comes into view."

"This scene is a Premiere showing of a new picture, "The Great Lovers." The star actor and actress are LARRY KATTMAN and BETTY KIEFER. Larry is the current glamour boy of the silver screen while Betty is the favorite pin up girl of show business. On hand to see the premiere is EILEEN HABER-KAMP with her husband. Eileen has won the title of Mrs. America and the best housewife of the year. With Eileen is another friend, LOIS SCHROEDER. Lois has just returned from Europe where she served as a captain in the Army Nurse Corps."

Here the sorceress explained that again the picture had faded; after a few minutes she resumed her revelations. "I see," she said, "the University of California. Here FOREST SAWMILLER is the star halfback for the football team. The team has just played a tough game, but they have won. Frog, as he was called in his high school days, made two touchdowns. Also here is JOHN SCHNEIDER, who has added the title of Professor to his name. John is a professor of Psychology, a genius with I. Q. tests. My picture now changes to Ohio State University. Here VERNON CLAUSING is instructor of Vocational Agriculture. Vernon has developed a new kind of corn which he guarantees will produce 250 bushels to the acre."

"Next I see NED HOGE, who is an atomic chemical expert. Ned and his secretarial assistant, JOYCE NIEMEYER, are working on atomic energy which will replace gasoline. It will also heat houses for two months without refueling. The picture of Toledo Hospital now comes into my view. Here LOIS ANN MONTGOMERY is superintendent of nurses. Lois is also president of the visiting nurse's association."

"Now I see a large dairy farm. It is the most beautiful place in the country side. This farm belongs to ROGENE LEHMAN. Rogene's farm is the largest of its kind in the country. And now still another place comes into my view," the sorceress said, "this is Mademoiselle Carol's Millinery Shoppe. The owner of this exclusive shoppe is CAROL KUCK. Another friend, GRACE EVERSMAN, who is a Powers Model, models Mademoiselle's gowns at the fashion reviews. Both Carol and Grace have been very successful in their occupations. Also in New York is ROBERT SETTLAGE. He is the minister at the famed Little Church Around the Corner."

"And now," said the sorceress, "the crystal remains blank, which means that there is no more to tell."

I left that dark and gloomy room much satisfied with my visit, though I did not recover for many days, from the surprise of these revelations.

Absent: Dean Hoge.

The band gave the first of its three concerts on November 5, 1949. This concert was to have been part of an ice cream social presented during the summer, but due to the polio epidemic it was postponed and the social part was cancelled.

At Christmas time the band was joined by the chorus and presented a sacred concert, incorporating tableau scenes as part of the program. The auditorium was filled to capacity for this annual event.

A large audience attended the New Knoxville School spring band concert. A very interesting program, including modern and popular numbers was presented to an enthusiastic audience.

The Senior Class expresses its deep appreciation to Mr. & Mrs. F. F. Eversman for their interest and kind direction, which has produced such a fine band for our school and community.

The New Knoxville Chorus under the able direction of Mr. & Mrs. F. F. Eversman, enjoyed a very successful year. The chorus group helped the band in giving the Christmas Concert.

The Annual Spring Concert was presented to a large and appreciative audience on April 28, 1950 in the school auditorium.

The Senior Class wishes to express their thanks to Mr. & Mrs. Eversman for their kind co-operation in the past years.

1949-1950 VARSITY SEASON

The New Knoxville Rangers finished the season with five victories and twelve defeats. These victories were all gained on their home floor, as they were unable to win a game away from New Knoxville.

New Knoxville started well by defeating St. Henry by thirteen points in the Rangers' opening game of the season. They lost the next three games in succession but came back with a league victory over Cridersville on December 16. This was a one point victory. Then followed the longest losing streak of the season lasting six games. The Rangers came through and defeated Coldwater in a rough and tumble game. After losing to Anna in an overtime contest New Knoxville defeated Buckland 50 to 47 in achieving their fourth victory of the season. The next two games on the Rangers' schedule were won by New Bremen and Rockford.

New Knoxville finished the season by defeating McGuffey, coached by Mr. Emerson Howe, 57 to 46.

The New Knoxville Rangers won two of their five league games this season. Their two victories were bitterly fought and close scoring games with Cridersville and Buckland. In their games with Minster and Waynesfield the Rangers tried desperately but lost out when the final whistle blew by four and two points respectively. New Bremen, league leader, overpowered New Knoxville by ten points 53 to 43 in the Rangers last league game of the season.

AUGLAIZE COUNTY TOURNAMENT

New Knoxville...51 Buckland 53

The Auglaize County Basketball Tournament was held in St. Marys this year. New Knoxville drew Buckland in the second game of a single elimination tournament.

The New Knoxville Rangers and Buckland Bucks played a very close scoring game. The Rangers were leading by two points at the end of the first half. With the score all tied up at 51-51 with fifteen seconds to play, Krites, Buckland center, made a pivot shot from the foul line to defeat the Rangers 53 to 51.

This was the last game for five of the varsity players, who are seniors and will graduate in May.

Buckland Edges New Knoxville 53-5 In Thrilling Class B Tourney Contes

With three seconds left to play and the score tied at 51, Bob Krites, Buckland center, tossed in afield goal from about the foul line to win the Auglaize County Class B Tournament game for Buckland, 53-51, from New Knoxville. The crowd went wild as the ball dropped through the net, giving the Bucks, last in the County League play, a chance against Cridersville in the semi-finals on Feb. 22.

The Rangers are eliminated from further play, last night's game winding up their play with a record of five wins and 13 defeats for the season. 1949 FALL SEASON

The New Knoxville Rangers played only four games during the 1949 fall season due to the rainy weather. The opening game of the season was lost by the margin of one run to Cridersville, the score being two to one. The loss of five regulars of the previous season was keenly felt, especially in the hitting department. The Rangers went on to win their next three consecutive games. In winning the game with Buckland the New Knoxville team scored nine runs, and were aided materially by nine Buckland errors in achieving their victory. In the return game with Cridersville the Rangers turned the tables and they garnered ten hits and made only one error. The last game of the season was played at Anna and the Rangers came from behind in the top of the seventh inning to score eight runs and defeat the Shelby County undefeated league leading Anna Rockets by a score of nine to eight. The Rangers finished a more successful season than was anticipated when the season began, having a percentage of 750.

SPRING BASEBALL

The Rangers are looking forward to the spring baseball season. In gaining more experience in the early season games they hope to be a real contender for the Auglaize County tournament championship.

Four of the regulars are seniors and they with their teammates will strive to improve their hitting and fielding to give New Knoxville High School the same high class baseball team it has enjoyed in former years. In this way the Rangers hope to bring the combined fall and spring baseball campaign to a successful close.

FRESHMEN BASEBALL PLAYERS

Eleven freshmen boys came out for baseball practice during the fall season. None of these boys had a chance to break into the lineup of any of the regular games, but daily practice and intrasquad games has given them invaluable experience.

There are some promising rookies among this group, who will undoubtedly play a lot of baseball for New Knoxville High School before they graduate. Definite positions have not been determined for these young players, but they have been shifted around to study them and make an analysis of where they can play best and do the team the most good.

These freshmen rookies will be competing, with underclassmen of this year's squad, for positions vacated when four regular seniors graduate this spring.

RESERVE SEASON

The reserve basketball team had a record of seven victories and nine defeats for the 1949-1950 season. Early in the year the team was made up mostly of freshmen and sophomores. Later three underclassmen of the varsity squad, played on the reserve team to give them valuable playing experience.

Ten members of the reserve squad were freshmen. There are some very good prospects in this group as well as in the other underclassmen. With added experience their ability as basketball players will improve. Also, with a year or two to go these boys have a good chance to grow up giving New Knoxville the size it has been accustomed to in former years.
